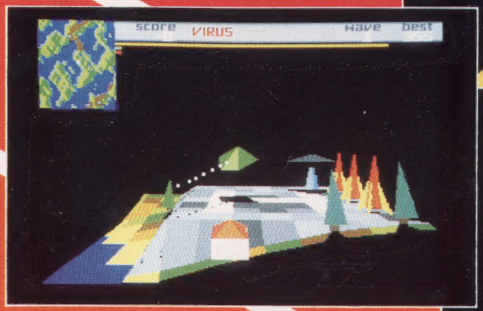
Virus.



SCREEN SHOTS FROM ATARI ST VERSION

This lightning fast shoot-out takes place over a startling three dimensional landscape which undulates below as you pilot your heavily-armed Hoverplane, skimming across the surface on a death defying mission. Invading alien Seeders, Drones and Mutants are attacking the planet, polluting the surface with a creeping, poisonous red virus.

Your mission: To halt this rapidly spreading virus before the land is defoliated.

Throw the full might of your Hoverplanes's powerful laser cannon and homing missiles against a variety of marauding spacecraft, each with its own deadly strategy.

This truly innovative piece of game: software incorporates the following features:–

• Unique three dimensional solid graphics • Superfast smooth scrolling multi-directional movement • Incredible light-source projected shadow effect • Highly sensitive and responsive control system • Realistic contoured patchwork landscape

. . . and don't forget to watch out for the legendary sea monster . . . !
